Dear Pastors and Friends,

The last two months have been a whirlwind of activity. We spent 5 weeks in western Canada packing into our schedule 9 meetings and thousands of miles of traveling! The Lord truly showed us His provision as we were blessed beyond measure. My parents in Calgary were able to see our boys for the first time, and we feel they are closer than ever to salvation after the time we spent with them.

I had the privilege of leading a lady to Christ in Ft. McMurray—the very town where I accepted Christ. We had the opportunity to pick her up for church on Sunday, and she even desired to follow the Lord in baptism. We spent some time with the man who led me to the Lord and his family. My wife was taken to get a facial, and led the woman to the Lord who gave her the facial. I also saw a lady and two teenagers saved, and two young men surrendered to the mission field under the preaching of God's Word. The fellowship we enjoyed with all the pastors and their congregations was priceless.

The Lord provided the unique opportunity for my wife to interpret in sign language for my messages at one church. (Pictured below) The deaf man usually just read lips, but this time enjoyed getting to "hear" the message in his own language. Sunday night he brought four more deaf with him to the service!

We made so many new friends and partners in prayer. God gave us safety on the roads and no troubles at the border crossings. (Having a British passport—coming from America into Canada and back again always gets some sideways looks!)

From there we had two meetings in Virginia, one in Iowa, and another one in Tennessee. Now we will head back to my in-laws in Indiana to wait for our third child set to arrive in a week's time. We plan on taking 6 weeks off (I have two meetings to go to on my own during that time) then we hit the road again as we are booked solid through December. Thank you for all your prayers and faithful support. We are at 8% support now PTL. May the Lord richly bless you.

Prayer Requests:

- My family's salvation
- Wisdom in scheduling meetings
- Daniel's safe delivery and no complications
- Divine protection

Led by Him,
