Dear Partners in prayer,

How wonderful to be in the ministry full-time, to put all my focus into the ministry God has called me to. We are enjoying being together as a family—constantly. We have practiced asking Elijah, our two-year-old, "Where are we going?" And his response is "England." Recently we were at a meeting and the pastor graciously took us out to dinner after a Wednesday evening service. After leaving the restaurant around 11:00 p.m. my wife asked Elijah where we were going. His answer was, "Hotel!" Stephen just had his first birthday and enjoyed getting his cake all over the place!! Our boys truly are a blessing from the Lord and we are enjoying raising them for Him. Though at times deputation can be rough, we know they are enjoying many blessings other kids will never know.

We are enjoying getting to know the many people we meet at various churches. The thought that there are people who not only believe in what we are doing but also are willing to support us in prayer and finances is truly a humbling thought.

My wife and I have had the opportunity to visit and win souls together. I recently learned that a lady we had invited to our sending church while out door knocking has been attending faithfully since. The Lord has a way of rewarding our frailest efforts. We desire to help churches in whatever way we can.

We had the wonderful opportunity to attend our first year of BIMI Candidate School. What a wonderful week of learning. We had no idea there was so much to deputation before finally arriving on the field. Everyone was so encouraging. The spirit of serving the Lord was so prevalent in everyone from the janitor to the president. One thing that really touched our hearts was when a veteran missionary in his 80's said he wished he could have another life to be a missionary again! Many throughout the week echoed his statement.

Prayer Requests:

- My family's salvation
- Andrea's pregnancy with little Daniel—Due August 20
- Safety as we travel
- More souls saved
- Financial support to increase

We covet your prayers and thank you for your support.

Led by Him,

The Mansfield Family
