Dear Pastors and Friends,

Deputation is a rollercoaster—physically as we drive through Kentucky, Tennessee, and some of the more mountainous areas; emotionally as we encounter the loss of dear friends and the trials of childrearing constantly on the go; and spiritually as our Lord and Satan are at war and we are in the heat of the battle. Your prayers are greatly needed, appreciated, and never taken lightly.

The summer has been busy; although, we have had a few holes in the schedule that the Lord has filled through divine appointments. God has very obviously been leading and guiding us whether through planned meetings or times we “drop” in on a church. We have had the opportunity to go soul winning, visit on a bus route, and go visiting with pastors.

I am an electrician by trade and recently felt that yearning to rewire something. The next church we were at happened to be starting a remodeling of the entryway and the Lord allowed me to use my skill to be a blessing. Likewise, my wife desired to use her skill in sign language and was able to interpret at BIMI Candidate School and a session of Church Planting School. Isn't it great to serve a God who not only handles the big problems in our lives, but knows and meets the needs of our smallest desires!

We recently also found out that our prayer card will expire at the end of December. The Lord has seen fit to bless our family with another precious one to rear for Him. We will hopefully find out if it is boy or a girl in the middle of September. We will have new prayer cards made a few months after the baby is born. So far the pregnancy is going smoothly, but pray for my wife's comfort as we continue to travel from Maryland to California and back to Maryland again before American Thanksgiving!

Of course, we couldn't call this a prayer letter unless we mentioned a few of our needs. Please pray for my family's salvation (my parents, brothers, and English relatives are not saved), support to increase, fruitfulness as we witness, for others to yield to the call of missions.

Working at a church.
